

Privacy Policy

Basic Income Australia Limited ('the Company', 'we', 'us', 'our') is committed to achieving implementation of a Universal Basic Income in Australia and this policy outlines our ongoing obligations to you in respect of how we manage your Personal Information, as and when you engage with us in this vital endeavour.

What is Personal Information and why do we collect it?

Personal Information is information or an opinion that identifies an individual. Examples of Personal Information we collect includes names, addresses, email addresses, phone and facsimile numbers, as well as usernames provided by you when logging onto our services.

This Personal Information is obtained in many ways that may include interviews, correspondence, by telephone and facsimile, by email, via our website www.basicincomeaustralia.com, and via third-party services that we use to communicate with you, such as Facebook, Instagram, Discord, Trello, Miro, Meetup, and YouTube, or other third-party services we may use from time to time to communicate with members, supporters, donors, and volunteers of the Company, and the public; as well as from your website, from media and publications, from other publicly available sources; from cookies, and from third parties. We don't guarantee website links or policy of authorised third parties.

We collect your Personal Information for the primary purpose of communicating with you regarding the purposes of the Company as set out in our Constitution and Policy, as well as for soliciting donations, and to offer you merchandise or paid activities related to the purposes of the Company. We may also use your Personal Information for secondary purposes closely related to the primary purpose, in circumstances where you would reasonably expect such use or disclosure. You may unsubscribe from our mailing/marketing lists at any time.

When we collect Personal Information we will, where appropriate and where possible, explain to you why we are collecting the information and how we plan to use it.

Sensitive Information

Sensitive information is defined in the Privacy Act to include information or opinion about such things as an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, membership of a political association, religious or philosophical beliefs, membership of a trade union or other professional body, criminal record or health information.

Sensitive information will be used by us only:

- For the primary purpose for which it was obtained
- For a secondary purpose that is directly related to the primary purpose
- With your consent; or where required or authorised by law.

Disclosure of Personal Information

Your Personal Information may be disclosed in a number of circumstances including the following:

- If you are a member of the Company, any details held in our Register of Members to other members upon request.
